One of them appeared to be holding something in their hand, which I later suspected was a weapon. The argument escalated, and I saw one person push the other before they ran away." Tip: Stick to factual observations, avoid assumptions, and describe what you directly saw or heard. 2. "Where were you at the time of the crime?" Answer: "At the time of the incident, I was at my friend's house, about two miles from the scene. I can provide their contact information if needed, and I have a timestamped receipt from their Wi-Fi log that supports my alibi." Tip: Provide specific details and supporting evidence when available. 3. "Do you know the victim or suspect?" Answer: "I knew the victim casually from the neighborhood; we occasionally spoke at the local store. I do not know the suspect personally, and I have no motive to harm anyone." Tip: Be honest about your relationship and avoid speculation. 4. "Did anyone see you at the time of the incident?" Answer: "Yes, my neighbor can confirm I was outside in my yard during that time. I can ask them to provide a statement if necessary." Tip: Mention witnesses or evidence supporting your presence elsewhere. 5. "Is there anything else you think is important for us to know?" Answer: "I want to emphasize that I have no involvement in this incident, and I am willing to cooperate fully to help clarify what happened." Duplex printing is an effective way to reduce paper usage and create more compact documents. Printing on both sides of the paper not only saves resources but also makes large documents easier to handle and store. Many modern printers support automatic duplex printing, simplifying the process.

Print quality settings should be adjusted based on purpose. Draft mode is suitable for internal review or rough notes, while high-quality settings are better for final copies or professional presentations. Balancing quality and ink usage helps manage printing costs effectively.
