However, the emergence of adult coloring books in the early 2010s revolutionized the industry, offering complex, detailed illustrations aimed at stress relief and mindfulness. Within this landscape, niche themes began to surface, catering to specific interests. Serial killer coloring books emerged as a subculture within this adult coloring movement, driven by: - Curiosity about true crime: A growing public fascination with infamous killers like Ted Bundy, Jeffrey Dahmer, and the Zodiac Killer. - Shock value and novelty: Offering an unusual, provocative experience that challenges social taboos. - Artistic expression of darkness: Allowing individuals to explore darker themes in a controlled, creative environment.
